Article (2)

The Committee established as per the previous Article of this Decree will be responsible for the following functions until the formation of the National Accord Government is complete:

1. Initiate the preliminary arrangements for the implementation of Article (34) of the aforementioned Libyan Political Agreement.
2. Devise and implement appropriate plans for security structures and security forces, including effective measures to establish authority and control.
3. Oversee the development of a plan to secure cities, starting with the capital and in coordination with the relevant security institutions.
4. Approve the work methods and rules of engagement that are specific to the Army, the Police and armed formations, including their disciplinary and penal procedures.
5. Monitor and follow-up with the implementation and effectiveness of the aforementioned arrangements, and remedy any shortcomings.
6. Any other task requested from it by the Presidential Council of the Government of National Accord that falls under the implementation of the security arrangements provided in the Libyan Political Agreement and its Annexes.
7. Assign its tasks to, after its establishment, a “committee” to monitor the implementation of the temporary security arrangements that appear in Article (37) of the Libyan Political Agreement, or to any other relevant public institution, as determined by the Government of National Accord.

Article (3)

The Committee will periodically report to the President of the Presidential Council of the Government of National Accord every three days, starting from its first meeting, which must be convened within three days from this Decree’s date of issuance.

Article (4)

The Committee will resort to any means it finds appropriate for the success of its tasks, pending the approval of the Presidential Council.

Article (5)

The provisions of this law shall enter into effect from its date of issuance, any contrary provision shall be repealed.
