Article (1)

The Libyan Army is a statutory military force composed of officers, non-commissioned officers (NCOs), and privates. The Libyan Army shall defend Libya, uphold national unity, respect the civil constitutional system, and maintain public order and security when necessary.

The Army shall be rebuilt and its statutory military units shall be formed in accordance with the military legislation in force.

Article (2)

Security institutions are statutory institutions in charge of maintaining public security and order. They shall be established in accordance with the provisions of the laws in force and shall be subject to the terms and conditions thereof.

Article (3)

Without prejudice to the provisions of Articles (1) and (2) of this resolution, all existing non-statutory armed groups shall be dissolved by 31/12/2014 at the latest. All assignments and orders issued in their respect shall be annulled as of the date of entry into force of the present law.

Article (4)

The disbursement of salaries and remunerations shall continue throughout the aforementioned period. This provision may only be implemented subject to the provisions of Articles (7) and (8) of Law No. (8) of 2014 on the national identification number.

Article (5)

Members of the aforementioned dissolved groups shall be transferred as follows:

1. Soldiers and civilians thereof shall be reinstated to military or security institutions, depending on the case, for their reassignment, subject to the relevant provisions relating to the Military Integrity and Reform Commission. Those who are not governed by such provisions shall be transferred to civil service or retirement.
2. Non-working members shall be transferred to the Ministry of Labour and Rehabilitation in accordance with the provisions of Law No. (12) of 2010 on labour relations and the executive regulation thereof. They shall be granted the jobseeker's allowance stipulated by the legislation in force in preparation for their integration in State institutions, taking into consideration the applicants desiring to enlist in military and security institutions in accordance with the legislation governing such institutions.
3. All the properties of dissolved armed groups shall be transferred to the State of Libya. The concerned entities shall institute the proper implementation mechanisms for this provision.

Article (6)

The provisions of this resolution shall enter into force from its date of issuance, repealing any contrary provision. It shall be published in the Official Gazette.
